Cathedral Square uses photos and videos of staff, residents, volunteers and board members in many ways for marketing purposes. Photos are important to have in publications because they display a sense of community as well as the involvement of individuals in activities and events related to Cathedral Square. Photos and videos may be used in "hard copy" publications (such as fact sheets, annual reports, exhibit displays and newsletters), on the Cathedral Square and/or SASH websites, and on a variety of social media and other online sites. They also may be used at special events such as job fairs and conferences.

THANK YOU!
